WELCOME:

---

Hey there! Congratulations on your engagement! I'm excited about your interest in hiring me as your photographer. I know your wedding day is a huge deal and I'm honored you're willing to trust me with capturing your big day.

In this guide, you'll learn a little more about me and my pricing,

ABOUT ME

---

Hello, hello! My name is Faith Nandkeshwar, and I'm the owner of Faith Chariana Photography. My favorite things include coffee, summer nights, Hallmark movies, R&B music, people, and most importantly Jesus. I'm a hard worker and quite the perfectionist, so everything I do is done with excellence. But above all, I'm invested in YOU. My top priority is telling your story clearly, accurately, and beautifully...so if I start screaming encouragement or ugly cry behind my camera, don't be alarmed, it's just because I care so much!
